A PUBLICATION FOR THE BOROUGH OF COLLINGSWOOD

5 TIMES A YEAR!

Town Crier - the best way to reach customers

One price buys two ads! Print edition and online!

We'll get right to the point – advertising with the Town Crier gets your business seen by every home, apartment complex and business in town. The Borough prints 8,000 copies of the local publication five times a year, and folks rely on the Crier for info on everything Collingswood. Thousands more read the online edition at Collingswood.com where your ad links directly to your businesses' website!

“Really stand out!
Advertise with a free standing insert (flyer) in the Town Crier for just $600. Great for coupons, announcements, anything!
Call for details.”

There's no better bargain for getting your business noticed by residents. Town Crier readers are typically vested in the town and likely to patronize local merchants, restaurants and services. Our regular advertisers know the value of being seen in the Town Crier.

“Very few media outlets provoke the response that we receive from our regular advertising in the Town Crier,”

Advertise in Collingswood's official town paper for a full year and get 10% the cost of all five ads. Issues are typically published near late February, early May, late July, mid-September and early November – focusing on main events in town like the May Fair and Holiday Parade.

Your advertisement must come as a complete, ready to print ad in JPEG or PDF format at least two weeks before printing. Ads shown on this page are only for general reference. For more information on ad design and placement, call Cass Duffey at 856-854-0720 x135. Make checks payable to Collingswood Partners.
